

---

● WHO should have run away, in classic story-book style, to join the circus in Manchester, but Antonia Beamish, formerly receptionist and occasional breakfast waitress at London's Groucho's club? After mingling with the likes of Brigitte Nielsen, Duran Duran, Lenny Henry and Harold Pinter, she has left to join Archaos, the zany French rock 'n' roll circus now at Platt Fields — to learn how to juggle seven fish at once.

---