

Circus Muck

A WEIRDO circus troupe is currently touring Britain disgusting family audiences with what's described as "the sickest show on earth". Said to be nothing more than a "two-hour orgy", France's 'Archaos' circus features topless girls, men cavorting in leather jock-straps, mock decapitations, the smashing of TVs and washing machines and the scorching, torching and crashing of cars. Surprisingly, the French government has given the troupe £300,000 to bring their muck over here...could be they're getting their own back on us for sending Dudley Moore over there chasing chickens!
